Subpart A—General

§ 1254.1 General provisions.

(a) Researchers will normally use documents in designated research rooms only.

(b) Original documents will not normally be made available when microfilm copies or other alternative copies of the documents are available.

(c) Persons seeking information that is published and readily available will normally be referred to a public library.

(d) A Regional Administrator, a director of a Presidential Library, or a director of a Washington, DC, area research unit may require that researchers under the age of 14 years be accompanied by an adult researcher who agrees in writing to be present when the documents are used and to be responsible for compliance with the research room rules set forth in Subpart B.

(e) Requests received in the normal course of reference service that do not specifically cite the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) are not considered requests made under the act. Requests under the act must follow the procedure set forth in subpart C or subpart D of this part.

(f) Certain documents in the custody of NARA are available for exhibit, but are loaned only if the exhibitor meets exacting requirements regarding security, insurance coverage and humidity and temperature control of the exhibit area. These requirements may be obtained by writing to National Archives (NE), Washington, DC 20408.

§ 1254.2 Location of documents and hours of use.

(a) Researchers should identify the location of the documents needed. Information about the location of records may be obtained by writing to the National Archives and Records Administration (NWCC1), Washington, DC 20408; by sending an e-mail message to http://www.archives.gov/global\_pages/inquire\_form.html; sending a fax request to (301) 837–0483; or calling (202) 501–5400 or (301) 837–2000.

(b) The locations and hours of operation (expressed in local time) of the depositories administered by the National Archives and Records Administration are shown in part 1253 of this chapter.

(c) Except for Federal holidays and other times specified by the Archivist or other authorized NARA officials, documents will be made available according to the schedule set forth in part 1253.

(d) In addition to the times specified in part 1253, documents may be made available at such other times as are authorized by a director.

§ 1254.4 Research procedures.

(a) Before applying to use documents, the researcher should ask the depository holding them whether the documents are available, whether there are enough documents to warrant a visit, or whether copies would be more practical.

(b) Researchers must apply in person at the depository that has custody of the documents.

(c) Researchers who wish to use documents not on microfilm in a depository where the microfilm research room is separate from textual research rooms, must complete a researcher identification application form and provide the information needed to decide which documents can be made available. Researchers who wish to use only microfilm documents in a depository where the microfilm research room is not separate from textual research rooms must also comply with this paragraph. Applicants must show identification containing a picture or physical description of the applicant, e.g., a driver's license or school identification card. Exceptions to this requirement must be approved by the director. If applying for access to large quantities of documents or to documents that are especially fragile or valuable, the researcher may be required to furnish additional information about personal or professional qualifications or to furnish additional reasons why access is required. The collection of information contained in this paragraph has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget with the control number 3095-0016.

(d) A researcher will not be issued a researcher identification card if the branch chief or director of the relevant repository determines that:

(1) The documents which the researcher wishes to use are not in the legal custody of NARA; or

(2) The researcher is not interested in documents maintained by NARA but in information contained in secondary sources available at other institutions.

(e) Researchers using only microfilm, where the microfilm research room is separate from textual research rooms, are not issued an identification card but must register as described in § 1254.10.

(f) In addition to the procedures in this section, researchers desiring to use archives that contain national security classified information must follow procedures in subpart D.

(g) The legal custody and control over access to records that are in the physical custody of the records centers, but not yet accessioned into the National Archives of the United States, remains with the agency. NARA informs researchers of the procedures required to obtain access.

§ 1254.6 Researcher identification card.

(a) An identification card is issued to each person who is approved to use records other than microfilm. Cards are valid for three years, and may be renewed upon application. Cards are valid at each facility, except as described in paragraph (b) of this section. They are not transferable and must be presented if requested by a guard or research room attendant.

(b) At the National Archives in College Park and other NARA facilities that issue and use plastic researcher identification cards as part of their security systems, paper researcher identification cards issued at other NARA facilities are not valid. In facilities that use plastic researcher identification cards, NARA will issue a plastic
